

A close-up photograph of several bees on a golden honeycomb. The bees are in various positions, some facing towards the camera and others away. The honeycomb cells are clearly visible, creating a textured, hexagonal pattern. The lighting is bright, highlighting the intricate details of the bees' bodies and the wax structure.

Join Principal Lanier on Thursday

October 22, 2020

@ 6:00 P.M.

for

Honey Creek Elementary School's

Title I Annual Meeting

to learn more information about the Title I and Parent & Family Engagement Program

Meeting Microsoft Teams link:

Title I Annual Meeting